

“The land is so inspiring that it is hard to express verbally. Artists tend not to be verbal people; we tend to express ourselves visually. There is a feeling that a certain area has, and needs to be expressed . . . it is the grand landscape.”

Jerry Sieve

Clockwise, from top:

- GOLDEN GLOW, LOWER ANTELOPE CANYON, NAVAJO RESRVATION
- ASPEN TREES, SADDLE MOUNTAIN WILDERNESS
- ARCH, VENTANA MESA, NAVAJO RESERVATION
- MT RANIER, REFLECTION LAKE
- OREGON COAST
- BOUGANVILLEA AT TUSCAN VILLA
- JERRY SIEVE, PAINTER/PHOTOGRAPHER

Landscape artist

GALERÍA DEL VALLE ESCONDIDO
Cave Creek, Arizona

Born 1949 in Cincinnati, Ohio, Jerry Sieve has worked for 28 years as a landscape artist, publishing over 2,000 images worldwide. His work can be found in the books, publications and calendars listed below as well as in numerous corporate and private collections. Sieve has taught over 40 workshops across the nation, and has acted as artist-in-residence at Fountain Hills High School and Cactus Shadows High School in Arizona.

BOOKS (Westcliffe Publishers) :

America's Southwest	1985
Ohio: Images of Nature	1990
Arizona Wilderness	1998
Along the Arizona Trail	1999
Arizona Trail Guidebook	2005

PUBLICATIONS:

Arizona Highways Magazine, Sierra Club, National Wildlife Federation, National Geographic

CALENDARS (featuring only Sieve):

Black and White, Looking Good Publications, 1988
Ohio: Images of Naure, Westcliffe Publishers, 1990-96

SHOWS, EXHIBITIONS:

* Indidcates a one-man show

Glendale Community College, Glendale, Arizona	1978
Mesa Fine Arts Center, Arizona	1981
Valley National Bank, Phoenix, Arizona*	1983
Desert Botanical Gardens, Phoenix, Arizona*	1985
Cincinnati Nature Center, Ohio*	1990
Cave Creek Art Studio*	1990
Cactus Shadows Fine Arts Center*	1998
Phoenix History Museum	2005

Galleries:

Picture Perfect Gallery, Main Street, Scottsdale, Arizona	1985-88
Tate Gallery, Sedona, Arizona	1991-94
Cincinnati Nature Center, Ohio	1988-1990
Juniper Sky Gallery, Utah	2004-present
Zion Canyon Gallery, Utah	2004-present

All images ©Jerry Sieve